THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V.RAMULU

W.P.No.12510 of 2007

ORDER:

This writ petition is filed being aggrieved by an order dated 9.3.2007 made in I.D.No.78 of 2005 raised by the respondent-workman, whereunder the Labour Court found that the enquiry conducted by the petitioner-Management was not valid.

It is settled principle that whenever a domestic enquiry is held to be valid or invalid, the parties can raise the same question after the main industrial dispute is decided and cannot be permitted to question in a writ petition at that stage, otherwise it results in hardship to the parties particularly the workman.

As held in Cooper Engineering Ltd v. P.P.Mundhe[1] the labour Court has not committed any error, and it is always open for the management to lead evidence and also challenge the very same findings in the very writ petition, if necessary, after disposal.

Writ petition is accordingly dismissed. No costs.
